

Helen Edwards

Our Bodies as Earth

As part of Modern Art Oxford's Movements for Staying Alive & Dancin' Oxford's Summer Festival

Free Events

Free Performance: Drawing Dancing Lost Gestures

29 June, Headington Hill Park, 2-4pm

Free Workshop as part of LIVE at Modern Art Oxford

17th July, Modern Art Oxford, 7pm

Free Performance: Dancing Peripheral Choreographies

6 July, Headington Hill Park, 2-4pm

Free Performance: Remembering Our Bodies as Earth

7 September, Headington Hill Park, 2-4pm

Modern Art Oxford

Please contact Helen for further information
hels19@hotmail.com

Exciting Ecological Dance coming to Headington Hill Park this summer.

Movement Artist Helen Edwards is offering 'Our Bodies as Earth' as part of Dancing Oxford Summer Festival and Modern Art Oxford's Summer Programme Movements for Staying Alive

Enjoy Immersive Outdoor Dance in Nature

Free events to connect people and the environment in this beautiful urban green space. This project showcases the Rivers of Life Ecological Movement Practice, a long term earth based project, and many of the participants, in a series of events offering several immersive performance experiences "Our Bodies as Earth."

Please come and relax, draw, join in, picnic in the park, dream and soak in the creative atmosphere of this outdoor public event

Remembering Our Bodies as Earth

Authentic movement with drawing and printing

Remembering, sensing, listening, discovering body movements and gestures for staying alive.

All events free.

In Headington Hill Park Our Bodies as Earth:

29th June 2 to 4pm Drawing Dancing Lost Gestures Immersive participatory performance remembering lost gestures and movement as part of earths nervous system, enriching the vitality of embodied life. Invitation for artists to draw dancing

6th July 2 to 4pm Dancing Peripheral Choreographies Developing gestures and peripheral choreographies in an immersive performance, softening boundaries between performers and audience to create a participatory experience extending beyond the human.

2 to 4pm 7th Sept Remembering Our Bodies as Earth Gestures of Earth and InterCultural Choreographies

Workshop at Modern Art Oxford LIVE Event

17th July 7 pm Remembering Our Bodies as Earth Authentic movement with drawing and printing. Remembering, sensing, listening, discovering body movements and gestures for staying alive.

Please contact Helen for further information

hels19@hotmail.com

Modern Art Oxford